New Faculty To Hear About College Today

Thirty-eight new and returning faculty members will be guests of the Committee on Improvement of Instruction at a meeting at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Room 24 of the main building. Purpose is to acquaint the newcomers with the services and facilities available on campus.

The group will hear short talks by James C. DeVoss, executive dean; Stanley C. Benz, dean of men; Raymond M. Mosher, dean of educational services; Dudley Moorhead, faculty council chairman; and Dr. Harry N. Fitch, member of the committee.

Following the talks the group will be conducted on a brief tour of the "personnel wing" of the administration building.

New faculty members are Mr. Roger Condon, Mr. John P. Hofer, Miss Dorothy E. Beegle, Mrs. Helen A. Dooley, Dr. Allen N. Smith, Mr. James D. Warnock, Mrs. Mary F. Morgan, Dr. Lois Miller, Mrs. Charlotte Angel.

Dr. David McKell, Mrs. Patricia Puziene, Mr. Gordon Martin, Mr. Paul Crawford, Mr. Hubert Hall, Mr. Carl Johnson, Mr. Donald E. Homuth, Mr. Loren T. Cockrell, Mr. Henry W. Robinson, H. Eugene Menges.

H. Hugh Mumby, Dr. James M. Sawrey, Col. Richards M. Bristol, Capt. Wm. E. Van Buskirk, Lt. Ralph E. Dillard, Master Sgt. Paul Frampton, Master Sgt. Boyd C. Howard, Master Sgt. Harvey Fannin, Mrs. Noreen Mitchell, Mr. Lyman S. Barrett, Mr. Rollin E. Buckman, Mr. Robert I. Guy, Miss Genevieve Turnac, Dr. Fred F. Harclerod, and Mr. Ralph Westerman.

Rush Deadline

Today at noon will be the last time for men to sign the rushing list in the Dean of Men's office, warns Dick Garcia, IFC president.

No man can be rushed or pledged unless his name is on the list, IFC rushing starts today.

The rushing list will be available to all fraternities sometime this week. The definite date will be announced later.

Signup Booms In O.T. Course

Occupational Therapy 145A, a course restricted to seniors and graduate students, has the largest enrollment in the department's history, according to figures released today by Mrs. Eleanor Denison, assistant professor of occupational therapy.

The 48 women and two male students almost double last year's total of 26. The previous high was 38, Mrs. Denison stated.

"Need for occupational therapists is especially great at the present time, and we are gratified that the number of students is increasing," Mrs. Denison added.

Enrollment Up

The enrollment this term in women's physical education classes is the largest in years, according to Dr. Irene Palmer, professor of physical education.

A total of 2,614 women is enrolled in physical education. Mrs. Helen Doerr was added to the staff as a part time instructor to teach six new sections of folk dancing.

EXCAVATION OPERATIONS are near completion for the Speech and Drama building. The gaping hole in the foreground will be the drainage pit of the scenery shop, and the single pile in the background, right of center, marks what will be the entrance to the main auditorium. The other deep excavations represent the orchestra pit, storage rooms and dressing rooms. In the early days of San Jose, this area around the building site was a bog and favorite ground for duck hunters. Therefore, to insure a solid foundation for the structure 625 piles will be driven and tied with re-enforced concrete.

Excavation Nears Completion For Speech-Drama Building

Approximately 85 per cent of the excavations at the construction site of the Speech and Drama building, and 450 of the 625 foundation piles remain to be driven, according to construction superintendents. The $1,262,366 structure is scheduled to be finished by Mar. 1, 1954.

Offices and classrooms will be located around the perimeter of the 191 by 245 foot building, and the entrance for the main auditorium will face the Spartan Shop.

If no difficulties, such as adverse weather or breakdowns, are encountered, it is estimated that the pile-driving should be completed in the next five weeks. Concrete pouring operations will not begin until this work is completed.

That throbbing, steaming machine which drives 52-foot piles like tent pegs is known as a "skid rig," and equipped with a Vulcan No. One hammer. The hammer weighs 5,000 pounds, and it takes between five and seven minutes to drive one of the creosote soaked piles, say authorities.

Earthquake proofing and support are the primary purposes for the piling. Several clusters of up to ten piles will form a foundation for the stages and auditoriums.

Ralph Wyckoff, San Jose architect, drew the plans for the building, and Tom LenMon is construction superintendent No. One.

Board To Appoint Committee Today

Action on naming the college's representatives to the joint city-college committee to discuss parking problems in the campus area is expected to be taken by the College Advisory board at its meeting today, according to Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz.

The committee which was set up by the City Council following a protest by students of the proposed installation of more parking meters near the campus, is scheduled to report to the council Dec. 1. In the meantime, no action is to be taken on the meters.

Dean Benz said he anticipates that the college representatives on the committee will include persons from the "Advisory board, faculty, administrative staff and student body.

City Manager Anthony Hamann, who is in charge of the committee, is currently out of town on business. A date for the first meeting will be set following his return to San Jose.

Royds Wins Wings

Former AROTC Wing Commander Charles N. Royds, Jr. received his Air Force wings Sept. 13 at graduation ceremonies at the USAF Basic Pilot school, Reese Air Force Base, Texas.

Second Lieut. Royds was the ranking student AROTC officer during his senior year on campus. He was a member of Alpha Delta Sigma.

Library Claims 140,000 Books

The College Library had a total of nearly 140,000 volumes according to Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian. The library now is receiving new additions at the rate of 1,000 volumes per month.

Books at the Library numbered 138,283, July 1. Since that period over 1,200 new books have been received. Heading the new additions over the summer was the American People's encyclopedia. The edition totals 20 volumes.

The new additions have caused the No. 700 volumes to be moved from the fourth to the fifth floor of the stacks.

Newspapers have been moved from Room 211 to the Reserve Book Room. The former newspaper room will be used for seminars and group references.

Class Moves Base

Orientation B, a natural science course, has changed its meeting place from Technical High school to Room 134. Dr. Robert Patterson, science instructor, has announced. It will continue to meet every Tuesday at 11:30 p.m.

Olympic Winner To Remain in College

Olympic Star Keeps Chin Up

By BILL FARR

Disappointed but not discouraged, Chuck Adkins, Olympic boxing champion declared ineligible to box for the college, said Friday afternoon that he will remain at SJS for the rest of the school year.

Adkins was ruled out of competition by a Pacific Coast conference ruling that states that any boxer who has participated in AAU competition prior to his 18th birthday is ineligible for college ring competition. Adkins won an AAU championship while a 17-year-old high school student in Gary, Ind.

The sinewy ring star said, "Naturally I am hurt by the ruling but I have no ill feeling about it or toward anyone. I feel the ruling is unfair and will lower the caliber of college boxing, but I certainly don't want it to be changed on my account."

"As for quitting college, that's definitely out. Boxing to me was just an activity and not my reason for continuing my schooling. I have received offers from other schools to continue my boxing and I may transfer next year, but I'll definitely finish this school year here."

"While I'm here I will do my best to help the other boys on the squad," he said.

Regarding his turning professional, Adkins declared that may come next year because, "I have to make my way through school, and if becoming a pro will further my college plans I will do so."

He wants to rest a year to get in shape. At present he is recuperating from having some tooth roots and bones removed from his upper mouth. He's slightly bothered by some blood knots in his cheeks.

Adkins' ultimate goal is to become a member of the Federal Bureau of Identification. He is enrolled in the police school at the college.

Spartan coach Dee Portal refused to comment on the Adkins' situation or the possibility that some of his other boxers may be affected by the ruling.

Last Day To Add

Today is the final date to add classes and for late registration, according to C. W. Quinley, acting registrar. Withdrawals from classes may be continued until Oct. 20, Mr. Quinley said.

Red Tape Snares Portal; Cancels Trip To Europe

Boxing Coach Dee Portal, while preparing to leave today for Europe to assist the armed forces athletic program, received word Friday that his trip will have to be cancelled.

According to a California state ruling, such trips must be for California state business only.

State Drive To Buy Champ a Trailer

By ED JACOBOWSKY

The drive to raise funds for a house trailer for Chuck Adkins and his wife was given the go-ahead signal for this week by everyone concerned, Ken Scannell, co-chairman of the drive, told members of the drive committee Friday afternoon.

A decision on the drive had been withheld pending investigation into the effect that the acceptance of such a gift might have on Adkins amateur status.

Following Thursday's announcement of the Olympic light-welterweight champ's ineligibility to compete for the college due to a Pacific Coast Conference ruling, Adkins decided to accept the trailer, as he does not intend to do any more amateur boxing, Scannell said.

The committee set no definite goal for the campaign, but Mel Sinkley, co-chairman of the committee, stated that it was hoped that $1000 could be raised.

Mayor Parker Hathaway of San Jose pledged his support of the campaign, Scannell said, and personally has contacted several merchants in the city.

Members of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity will handle campus donations Wednesday and Thursday. The Spartan Shields have volunteered to contact faculty members.

Homecoming Plans Develop

Preliminary plans for Sparta's 1952-53 Homecoming Nov. 7 are being formulated by the Homecoming committee under the chairmanship of John Bishop. The committee is working with the rally committee, Alpha Phi Omega and the social affairs committee to plan the celebration.

Bishop reports that the following activities have been planned: variety show, at which the Homecoming queen will be chosen; judging of house decorations; bonfire rally preceding the game; parade and the after-game dance.

Members of the Homecoming committee are: John Bishop, chairman; Bill Cancilla, vice-chairman; John Aitkin, parade; Greg Snyder, publicity; Bucky Levin, house decorations and Toni-Frieste and Jan Brockmann, secretaries.

Bible Week Exhibit

The Library will feature Bible exhibit in the display cases along the main hall in conjunction with Bible Observance week today through Oct. 10, according to Miss Joyce Backus, college librarian. The exhibit is being presented through the courtesy of the Grace Baptist church, San Jose, to honor the publication of the new revised standard version of the Bible.

The new authorized edition is the most important step forward in simplification and clarifying the text of the Bible since the King James version, according to the National Council of Christian churches.

Spartans Benefit By Trading With College Book Store

By DICK DEGNON

Support the Spartan Shop — you are supporting yourself and are a stockholder in the college that is giving you your education.

That about sums up the situation every time you make a purchase at the Spartan Shop, the campus' only book and supply store.

It is a non-profit organization planned and governed by the students themselves and designed to give the student the fairest possible deal on all text books and supplies.

According to Graduate Manager Bill Felse, the Spartan Shop transferred $35,000 two years ago to the general student body fund out of its surplus revenue. "Beginning last year the Spartan Shop started pouring its surplus into the new $1,500,000 Student Union fund, and will continue to do so," stated Mr. Felse.

"Everytime you make a purchase at the Spartan Shop you are contributing to the Student Union fund. The more purchases made the sooner you students will get your new Student Union building," he added.

Present-day students may not feel the impact of Spartan Shop-student cooperation, but future Spartans surely will share in the revenue that we accumulate by patronizing the local campus supply base.

There are local book stores which are getting a major portion of the students' book-buying dollar, and this should not be as long as we directly benefit by patronizing the Spartan Shop. Books are fair-traded at a set price, as is all Spartan Shop merchandise.

Last year the shop grossed $195,000, a figure below its high of $250,000. The goal this year is $250,000 and this can be met, says Mr. Felse.

New students, as well as old, are asked to leave their educational dollar on the campus and watch that dollar build a bigger and better campus in the future.

Positions Are Open In College Band For Fall Quarter

Positions are open in the College's Marching Band for students playing any instrument, Robert P. Olson, band director, announced Friday.

Interested students may contact the Music department secretary or Mr. Olson in Room 103 of the music building.

The band will perform at all home football games and at the Stanford and College of Pacific games.

Seventy-five students have already signed up, making the band the largest in several seasons, Mr. Olson said.

Felse Reveals Hours of Coop

Graduate Manager Bill Felse once again has stressed the hours during which the Coop and the Student Union will be open this quarter.

Hours for the Coop will be the same throughout the quarter until further notice. The Coop is open from 7 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Student Union hours will remain the same as last year. The Union will open at 8 a.m. and will close at 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Open Bids To Raze High

Bids will be opened Oct. 8 for razing four wings of the old San Jose high school, John Amos, director of buildings and grounds, reported recently. The work is to be completed by Jan. 31.

Frosh Camp—Informative and Fun

The officials in charge of this year's Freshman Camp and Freshman Orientation program truly deserve a fine pat on the back.

This season's Frosh Camp was the largest ever, with 479 students using the fine facilities of Asilomar and attending the three-day orientation program there, from Sept. 13-15.

Even though a crowd that size sometimes presents a problem, the co-ed function was conducted with no difficulty.

The spirit of the group was unusually high and President John T. Wahlquist also was on hand, eating with the campers at a Sunday dinner and afterward being serenaded by the 41 counselors.

The freshmen were the recipients of conducted tours on campus during the pre-registration week. These introduction-to-Sparta trips helped to familiarize the new students with the college, making the registration procedure that much easier.

The orientation program is a fine thing for students coming to this campus fresh from high school. It helps to make more mature individuals out of young, bewildered teen-agers, and gives them a good foundation for the college life ahead.

Drama Season Ticket Sale Closes Oct. 1

Wednesday is the deadline for buying reserve tickets for the 1952-53 drama department productions, according to Dr. Hugh W. Gillis, head of the speech and drama department.

General admission tickets for $3 and student booklets for $2 are on sale in the drama department office.

The season's six productions will range from tragedy to melodrama. Each play will be presented in the Little Theater on two consecutive weekends.

The season will open Oct. 31 with Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," directed by John Kerr, associate professor of drama. Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra" will be the second fall quarter production.

"The Sheep's Well," and a still unselected production will be presented during spring quarter. The season will close with "The Innocents," and "Under the Gaslight."

Librarian Returns

Miss Barbara Wood, Library circulation department head, has returned from a year's leave of absence, Miss Joyce Backus, head college librarian announced Friday.

Miss Wood obtained her M.A. degree at the University of New Mexico. She also was promoted from Lieutenant to Lieutenant Commander in the Naval Reserve during the year. Miss Backus said.

Aero Fraternity Sets Nominations

Nomination of fall quarter officers for Alpha Eta Rho, national aviation fraternity, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 21, according to Roy Hodges, fraternity treasurer.

The meeting also will feature discussion of a party for aviation students to be held next month.

Students Sought

The following students are asked to report to the Graduate Manager's office as soon as possible: Bonnie Dohemann, Marvin Copeland and the owner of Greyhound Bus trip ticket book that was lost Thursday night. The book is waiting to be claimed by the owner in the Graduate Manager's office.

Senior Executives Will Meet Today

The senior class council will hold its first meeting of the fall quarter today at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union, Ed Jacobowsky, president, said Friday.

Main purpose of the meeting will be to organize the council and make preliminary plans for December graduation activities, Jacobowsky said.

Dr. Irene Palmer, professor of physical education, has replaced Wilbur Luick, who resigned from the college faculty last year, as co-advisor of the class with Vernon Ouellette, placement director.

The council also will start planning for the first Senior Over-night.

San Jose Ground Play Sparks Win

By BILL TUNNELL

AZTEC STADIUM, San Diego. An alert Spartan football team practically chose its score Saturday night in beating the San Diego Aztecs 47-6 in a wild display of strength by three teams.

The game was only 1:25 old when the Golden Raiders scored their first touchdown on a 27 yard pass play from all-coast candidate Lynn Aplanalp to End Bob Amaral. The locals marched 54 yards in 5 plays on this scoring drive. Tackle George Porter kicked his first of five extra points for the night's work.

The footballers from Washington Square scored again in the first quarter, when with three minutes left to play, Dick Stults scored his first of two touchdowns from eight yards out. Stults carried three Aztec players from the five yard line into the end zone. Porter again converted to leave the score at the end of the first quarter, Spartans 14, Aztecs 0.

Coach Bob Bronzan used his regulars sparingly after the third touchdown was scored, which took place with the second quarter three minutes old. The Golden Raiders travelled 75 yards in six plays on this drive with Aplanalp pitching 29 yards to Halfback Bill Walker. Walker stumbled on the five yard line but dove into the end zone for the tally.

San Diego tallied their lone score in the second quarter on a four yard pass play. Otherwise their drives were stopped before they could gain momentum by a hard charging local defensive eleven.

Baldacci Lost to Frosh Gridders

Coach Tom Cuffe's hopes for a successful frosh football season received a rude jolt last week when Jim Baldacci, top candidate for the freshman quarterback slot, signed a baseball contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers for an undisclosed amount.

After Coach Bronzan had called off the first team when they scored the third touchdown, the second team went to work. They scored twice in the second period, both drives being well engineered by the Spartans' number two quarterback and outstanding defensive halfback, Jerry Hamilton.

Another Hamilton, this one Bob, who plays behind Stults at the fullback position, had a big hand in all three scoring drives. The first time he carried the ball he reeled off 27 yards from which point quarterback Hamilton passed to Halfback Roy Hiram for the score.

Larry Matthews was a big factor in the Golden Raider offensive thrusts, scoring two touchdowns, once in the second quarter from four yards out and again in the fourth period with five minutes left in the game, he scored on a plunge from the one-yard line. He set up his second score with a 27 yard dash to the one-yard line.

The starting offensive team for the Spartans was: ends, Bob Amaral and Stan Wacholz; tackles, George Porter and Sal Cardinalli; guards, Dale Sumers and Clarence Orr; center, Jack Carhart; halfbacks, Larry Matthews and Bill Walker; fullback, Stults; quarterback, Aplanalp.

The statistics along with the final score had the locals ahead by a wide margin. In only one department did the Spartans lead the Aztecs, that in passing. San Diego had the edge 135 yards to 99. But the Golden Raiders didn't need their best weapon for they ran at will on the ground. They picked up 435 yards to the Aztecs' 155 by rushing. The overall totals had the Spartans leading 534 yards to 290 for San Diego.

Coach Bob Bronzan's eleven also led in first downs 22 to 13.

The talent-laden locals take on the potent Arizona State at Tempe eleven for next week's contest. The game will be played at Tempe.

Spartans Grab Seven National Crowns in '52

Seven national championships were acquired by athletes from the local campus during the sporting session of 1951-52. Six men figured in the title-taking procedures.

Bob McMullen, distance ace from the Spartan track squad of last season, copped two national blue ribbons by taking the 3000-meter steeplechase in both the

BOB McMULLEN

NCAA finals and the AAU meet. He qualified for the Olympic tryouts but failed to make the Helsinki-bound team when he tripped over the last barrier and ran just out of the money in fourth position. His fourth place time of 9:11 for the rugged course is the sixth best of all time for an American. He triumphed over Horace Ashenfelter in the AAU meet. Ashenfelter later beat him in the Olympic tryouts and then went on to win the world's title in Helsinki.

Three Spartan boxers picked up national titles last season. Mac Martinez and Jack Scheberies, although not competing for the Golden Raider squad last year, won national AAU crowns in their weight divisions. They both lost out on trips to Helsinki when they were beaten in the Olympic tryout finals in Chicago. Martinez lost his bout in the Windy City in what ring experts described as one of the best amateur fights fought there in a long time.

Chuck Adkins rounded out the pugilistic trio's blue-ribbon grabbing by taking the 139 pound NCAA title. He also went on to take the world title at the Olympics.

Spartan tennis ace Butch Krikorian traveled to Abilene, Tex., last season to pick up the NAIB Invitational tournament's top award.

Bill Priddy, pole vault ace, completed the title-taking by winning top honors in the NCAA finals last season. Priddy soared 13' 9" to grab the blue ribbon which helped the Golden Raider track squad beat all other colleges in the nation, with the exception of the University of Southern California, in the national championships.

Venturi Loses Crown In State Golf Tourney

Dapper Ken Venturi, San Jose State's current claim to golfing fame, drew a Tartar in second round foe Vern Callison in the California Amateur Golf championships, and he and his hopes of being the sixth linksman to win the title two years running were ousted.

The well-dressed senior from San Francisco went down to defeat at the hands of Callison 3 and 1 on the nerve-wracking Pebble Beach course. Callison was even par while Venturi was four over.

The issue was decided on the 17th hole when the unheralded

Sacramentan put his shot within four feet of the cup and Venturi blasted into a trap.

Venturi's downfall came as a result of an erratic putter and constant trap trouble. He had landed in traps on three other occasions on the back nine.

Jack Bariteau, top man for the Spartans right before World War II, was knocked out of contention in the first round by another local, Fritz Andrade.

Eli Bariteau, the younger brother of Jack, failed to qualify for championship match play but had reached the semi-finals of the President's flight Friday.

Three Lettermen Return to College Varsity Rifle Team

This year's varsity rifle squad is taking shape with 14 of last year's team returning. Three returning lettermen, Kaye Tomlin, Walt Reinhard and Guy Wright, will spark what looks like a promising squad. Forty-one new men will give strength to the Frosh team.

Sgt. Richard F. Hosking, coach for the squad, will be aided by Maj. Stanley W. Martin, newly appointed air force ROTC adviser for the team.

Drive Meeting Set

Everyone who is interested in working on the Campus Chest drive should report to the first meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Room 17, Bernie Rapley, chairman of the drive, said Friday.

Keith Cole Named La Torre Lensman

Seniors who have made appointments for La Torre pictures should note that the photographer has been changed this year. The Keith Cole studio, 41 N. First street, will take the pictures for 1953 La Torre. Carole Simmons and Dick Zimmerman, co-editors, announced.

Seniors who have not signed for appointments as yet must do so by next week. Appointments may be made at the booth near the Library Arch.

John Tillotson, La Torre business manager, reported that Oct. 1 is the deadline for students who purchased yearbooks last year to pick up their copies in the Graduate Manager's office. If they are not picked up by that date, Tillotson said, they will be sold.

Tillotson urged students to purchase 1953 yearbooks early. More than 400 students on the purchase list last year didn't receive copies because the supply ran out.

Fall Program Announced by Student 'Y'

The Student Y planning board has announced three events scheduled for the fall quarter after a meeting at Alum Rock park.

First event on the Y activity list is their annual fall barbecue, to be held at Crummeys' Mansion Wednesday.

October 8 the group will sponsor Faculty Firesides at four different residences.

The Student Y also is planning a weekly Tuesday Chapel service in the college Memorial Chapel.

First of this series, originally scheduled for Tuesday, has been postponed, according to Ed Wright, publicity chairman.

Services are non-denominational and all students are welcome, Wright said. The services will be held from 10:45 to 11:15 a.m.

Benz Optimistic About Prospects Of Frosh Class

"I am expecting great things from the freshman class this year," said Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz after the first Freshman Orientation class session held last Thursday morning.

Benz, who spoke at the initial meeting, emphasized the importance of freshmen establishing broadly conceived goals. He also urged the first year students to study themselves as well as their courses.

The Freshman Orientation class is held each Thursday at 11:30 a.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium.
